X	Beulah EAST
X	David HORNE
X	Christopher PAYNE

John McDonnell Parliamentary Candidate with Beulah East, David Horne & Chris Payne – Labour's team for Charville

Beulah East

Street Champion Beulah East has lived in Charville for over twenty years. Following a successful career in the care sector, Beulah continues to serve the community tirelessly in many ways. These include as a director of a credit union, as a Hillingdon Home-start volunteer, on the board of Hillingdon Link and as a school speaker for OXFAM. As a former carer she recognises the problems that all carers experience. She will work for Charville and she will listen to Charville. She will work hard with Labour to ensure that Hillingdon makes a positive difference to your life.

David Horne

David has the experience of serving the community as an elected councillor from 1994 until 2006 on Hillingdon Council, the period 2002 until 2006 as councillor for Charville ward. While on the council, David was Chairman of a planning committee together with a licensing committee, and spent many years on both the housing and environment committees. David was involved with others in establishing a community voice on the hospitals in Hillingdon, to resist the closure of Mount Vernon and Harefield hospitals which were under consideration at the time, and to improve services at Hillingdon hospital.

Chris Payne

Chris Payne is a Fire Safety Advisor with the NHS. This follows 30 years service as a fire-fighter. Chris has always been an active trade unionist in both the Fire Brigades Union and now as a member of UNISON. In 1974 he attended Brunel University and graduated in 1978 with an honours degree in economics. He was a councillor in the London Borough of Ealing from 1994 to 2006, after which he moved to Hillingdon. He will be an effective representative for Charville and will work hard along with the Labour group to make Hillingdon work for you.

Savage Tory Cuts Hit Your Safety & Your Children's Schools

Tory Leader Scraps New Schools for Hillingdon

The Leader of Hillingdon Council, Conservative Councillor Puddifoot, addressed an assembly of all the local secondary head teachers to inform them that he was refusing to sign up to the Government's £150 million investment programme (Building Schools for the Future) to modernise and rebuild the secondary schools in Hayes and the south of the borough.

The council leader has stood down virtually all of the expert team of officers that have been engaged for two years in preparing the plans for the investment programme.

Hayes and Harlington MP John McDonnell is furious that the Conservative council has blocked £150 million being invested in schools in his constituency.

Leader of the Labour Group Councillor Mo Khursheed commented "we are all devastated after the unilateral announcement by the Conservative leader of the council."

The Successful School That The Tories Wanted To Demolish

In the early 1990's the Conservative administration of the council closed the original Barnhill School on the grounds that it was not needed. The parents of the 1400 pupils who now attend the school may beg to differ. When Labour came to power in Hillingdon they immediately started work on plans not only to re-open it but to re-build it with modern state of the art facilities. This investment coupled with the hard work of teachers has created an environment in which pupils can thrive. This year The School has been officially recognised as the most improved school in London. This follows its outstanding success in achieving a 92% increase in the number of school students achieving at least 5 GCSE A*-C grades (inc. English and Maths).

Tories argue that they have changed. But do they really care about the education of our children? In the last few weeks they have decided not to even bother bidding for government money to invest in school facilities across Hillingdon.

The lesson is simple.

Tories see education as a cost.

Labour sees it as an investment in all of our children's futures.

Tories to Cut Police Safer Neighbourhood Teams

Tory Mayor Boris Jonson and Tory Controlled Hillingdon Council have frozen the council tax.

BUT WHAT IS THE REAL COST OF THE FREEZE?

- *Has there been a cut in the salaries of senior officials & politicians? ... NO!
- *Has there been a cut in bureaucracy and red tape? ... NO!
- *Has there been a cut in wastage at the Civic Centre? ... NO!

The real cost of this council tax freeze is the sacking of 455 police officers!

This will save you 14p per week in your council tax.

Overall crime is down in Hillingdon thanks to Labour's investment in the Safer Neighbourhood initiative. However this is no time to be complacent.

Burglaries in Hillingdon are up significantly since Tory Mayor, Boris Johnson, took control of London's Policing

On 6th May you will get your chance to tell Boris what you think. Don't expect Hillingdon under the Tories, to stop Boris sacking your police. His chief henchman is none other than Hillingdon Tory Councillor Richard Barnes.

Only Hillingdon led by Labour will fight tooth and nail to keep our streets and our homes safe.
